

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1891.

It really looks like Governor Campbell has got Major McKinley on the run and is making a winning fight.

THE Newport Journal says it is rumored that John R. McLean is betting on 9,000 majority for McKinley. There are lots of people who believe if he had the say so he would make it 30,000 or more.

LEXINGTON's salary list per annum amounts to $80,675. Some of her taxpayers are trying to inaugurate a reform in her municipal government, and they ought to thin out the officers right at the start.

"HARD HIT" is the flaming head line of an article that Ohio Republican papers are publishing this week in which it is claimed the Farmers' Alliance has repudiated the People's Party ticket. Next Tuesday will tell whether it is the G. O. P. or the P. P. that has been "hard hit" by the farmers.

THERE is probably no other city in Kentucky that is so debt-ridden as Lexington. She owes $492,000 now, and the Transcript says she will have to borrow $150,000 for current expenses before another year's revenues become available. The per capita debt is $16.40, estimating the population at 30,000.

"If, in the course of time, as the shafts sink lower and lower into the tin lodes about Hill City the ore is found to continue rich and plentiful there will doubtless be a determined effort to put the mines on a paying basis. The Harney Peak mines now operated are six in number. Each one has expensive machinery plant, protected by substantial frame buildings. There are in addition to these six mines two which have been closed down because the prospects did not justify further development."

The above is what Mr. Wells, the Alaskan explorer, says in to-day's Cincinnati Post about the Dakota tin mines. It will be seen that it is doubtful whether the mines will ever be put on a paying basis. "If" the ore is found to be plentiful a determined effort may be made to put them on "a paying basis." In the mean time the McKinley tariff on tin is getting in its work to the tune of $15,000,000 a year.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

ABERDEEN.

The holy terror was around Saturday night. Wherever there is picking the vultures will flock.

Miss Anna Hudson is still confined to her room by sickness.

The Bentonville fair held Saturday last was a success in all particulars.

Gov. Campbell is at West Union to-day. A good many went from here to hear him speak.

E. E. Campbell, Democratic candidate for the Judiciary, was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Captain Wm. Herbert has returned from Georgetown, where he has been serving as grand juror.

Capt. Wm. Riggs, who has been in the South and West for a year or so, is visiting his family here.

C. A. White and Judge Tarbell speak in the Democratic cause here next Monday night, November 2nd.

The Harrover shooting scrape was a deplorable affair, and right harrowing to think people will get so excited.

Col. Bob Williams, a young attorney of this county, was the guest of Dr. Stevenson and family Sunday.

Scraping matches are getting quite numerous in our berg. As comments won't amount to anything, we refrain.

One of Ellsberry's prominent huckster millionaires is still sticking to his straw-pile like a sick kitten to a hot brick.

Rev. David Clark, our new Methodist minister, is not only a courteous gentleman but is a preacher of ability, and is fast gaining friends.

Amos Bradford, a prominent farmer above town and brother to our mailer P. N. Bradford, had the misfortune to lose one of his children by diphtheria Monday morning.

Ten dollars in gold for the best six hands of bright leaf, $5 in gold for the best six hands of red leaf tobacco. Bring your samples to Enterprise Warehouse. Award made December 24, 1891.

Cremation means to burn. S. P. Campbell invites everybody to attend the cremation exercises in front of the drug store Tuesday evening, November 2nd. Come everybody and bring the children.

Why can't Aberdeen organize a gang of wind-jammers, in other words a brass band? Most every town that has no more inhabitants than a coon and a yaller dog sports a band, and why not us? Echo answers, "Why?" with a big screech.

If you have anything to sell, beg, borrow, loan or etc.—no, we don't mean steel—hand your spare dime to us and we will announce the fact, so you will get quick returns. Some time since we remarked the fact of the scarcity of cats. Every cat in town had kittens that night. Printer's ink pays, for a dead surety.

S. P. Campbell has something or other in the drug store window that we don't know the name of and could not spell it if we did. He says the leaves on it grow eight feet long and seven feet wide (which we don't believe). But still, call around and inspect his curio department and you will be courteously treated and everything explained to you by a French dancing master.

THE SECRET BALLOT.

[Georgetown Times.]

The Indiana Republicans are out of humor with the Australian ballot system. The Republicans in other States where it is in operation, or where it is proposed to try it, are abusing it. The purpose of the new system is to eliminate, as far as possible, bribery and corruption from elections. It aims to purify politics, and handicap bootleggers. It is a moral agency that ought to receive the encouragement and support of all people whose eyes are open to the corrupting influences that control the politics of the country. No good citizen, whether in one State or another, or of one political party or another, ought to cry down an effort to make politics purer.

RAILROADS AND STREETS.

A Very Important Ruling by the Court of Appeals on the Subject.

In reversing the case of the Commonwealth against the city of Frankfort, the Court of Appeals says:

"First—A city has no power to grant to a railroad company the right to construct and operate a railway through its streets and alleys, unless it is expressly authorized to do so either by its own charter or by the charter of the railroad company.

"A provision in the charter of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company authorizing it to construct lateral or side tracks from its main track to terminate on the bank of the Kentucky river in the city of Frankfort does not authorize the construction of a lateral or side track which does not commence at the main track or terminate at the river, and the city has no power to grant the right of way across its streets and through an alley for the construction of such a track, no such power being conferred by its charter.

"Second—To the grant by a city of a right of way upon its public streets and alleys, the law attaches the condition that the use by the grantee shall not 'prevent, obstruct or unreasonably impede the passage of persons, wagons or other vehicles' through said streets and alleys.

"Third—The public is entitled to the reasonable use of the public streets and alleys of a city for their ordinary travel, and the city has no power to grant a right of way through such streets and alleys for a use which will unreasonably obstruct public travel, and where the grantee has the right to use a street or alley as often as he pleases and every time he uses it such use totally obstructs for the time, however short, the ordinary public travel, the obstruction is an unreasonable one and the grant is unauthorized.

"Fourth—When the owners of a mill applied to the City Council for the right of way through a public alley for the purpose of constructing a railroad track to connect with a track of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, and the city refused to grant the right because it did not have the right to grant it, a grant of the right of way to the railroad company which was evidently for the sole benefit of the mill-owners, who constructed the track at their own expense, was but an evasion, and the owners of the mill will not be allowed to secure for themselves in this indirect way a privilege which no citizen would be allowed to secure for himself directly."

Notice to Tax-payers.

I will be in Maysville Friday and Saturday, Oct. 30th and 31st, to receive taxes. A penalty of six per cent will be added to all taxes not paid before Nov. 1st. Please be prompt.

Last Notice To Taxpayers.

On and after November 1st, 1891, the penalty of six cents on the dollar will be added to all unpaid taxes. Taxpayers will please pay now as I have a large amount of money to raise this month.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Railroad News.

The New York Central's "Empire State Express" is claimed to be the fastest train in the world. On the first run it made 70 miles an hour part of the trip.

Kentucky Central trains are very irregular of late, the delays being caused by the repairs now being made to tunnels and bridges. The Maysville branch will be in No. 1 condition before long.

The Thompson Case Reversed.

The Superior Court yesterday reversed the case of the Commonwealth versus Lewis Thompson taken up from this county.

Thompson is the man who slashed Richard Harris across the face with a dirk knife at the Germantown fair in October, 1890. He had been arrested by Harris, who was acting as a special policeman, and in trying to escape cut and dangerously wounded the officer. He was tried in the Circuit Court and fined $400 and costs and given six months in jail. The case now comes back for another trial.

Worthy of a Trial.

If you are troubled with rheumatism or a lame back, bind on over the seat of pain a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. You will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds.

EX-GOVERNOR KNOTT, General P. W. Hardin and others were here yesterday on fuel gas business.

AN INTERESTING EVENT

That Came Very Near Transpiring on the C. and O.'s F. F. V.

An interesting event came very near transpiring in one of the elegant coaches composing the C. and O.'s "Fast Flying Virginian" last night.

When the train left Cincinnati among the passengers aboard was Mrs. John Hanley, of Tecumseh, Mich. She was en route to Richmond, Va., to visit her parents, and was accompanied by a female relative.

Shortly after the train passed Augusta, Mrs. Hanley was suddenly taken very ill. The matronly women in the coach were attracted by her suffering, and gathered about her. Their excited talk soon convinced every body in the coach that something unusual was about to transpire. The Conductor was called, and his surprise may be imagined when he was informed that Mrs. Hanley was on the point of becoming a mother. He was in a predicament that few Conductors are ever placed in.

Every attention possible was rendered Mrs. Hanley by the crew and the women on board. Fifteen or twenty minutes later the train reached this city. The Conductor ordered a stop made at the foot of Market street, and a cot was hastily procured and gentle hands carried the woman to the Central Hotel, where she was made as comfortable as possible. The company's physician was summoned, and two hours later Mrs. Hanley became a mother. The child is a healthy boy, and from the mother it is learned he is a thoroughbred Democrat. It is Mr. and Mrs. Hanley's first born.

The father was at once informed of the addition to his family, and telegraphed that he would be here to-day. Mother and child are doing well.

THE MARKETS.

Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

(Tuesday.)

The offerings were of only fair size, and were composed mainly of common trash, lugs and nondescripts, largely over half of the breaks being of these kinds, for which there was a fair demand, and prices offered were, as a rule, accepted. The number of bids of better goods very small—in fact, not enough to make any note of.

Of the 460 bids, 154 sold from $1.35 to $3.90, 178 from $4 to $5.95, 78 from $6 to $7.90, 23 from $8 to $9.75, 18 from $10 to $13.75, 7 from $15 to $19.25 and 2 at $20 to $25.
